

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved your time at home by eliminating the increasing number of intrusions into our time and privacy.

Indiana's law has been incredibly effective. Mealtime at our home is now rarely interrupted by unwanted calls.